Steelmark LLC Announces the Release of *And Still They Fly

Tulsa, OK – Feb. 3, 2004 – Steelmark LLC announced today the release of And Still They Fly (ISBN 0-9711523-1-4), the long anticipated second edition of And Yet They Fly. After more than a year of review by six national and international editors resulting in the most accurate German-to-English translation to date, And Still They Fly will be officially released on March 12, 2004.

“We continue to see a large and ever-increasing demand for new material on the Billy Meier contacts,” said Mike Whelan, Vice President, Sales and Marketing at Steelmark LLC. “The first edition, And Yet They Fly, has been selling on the used market for $50 to $150 which further reinforces our commitment to the best and most scientifically documented UFO case in the world.”

With the release of the second edition, readers will also be surprised to learn that a new chapter has been added. This new chapter is entitled The Henoeh Prophecies. These prophecies were given to Billy Meier on February 28, 1987 by one of his Pleiadian visitors, Quetzal, and have remained untranslated and unreleased since 1987. This important document will make its public debut within And Still They Fly on March 12, 2004.

The Henoeh Prophecies cover a wide range of topics but is focused primarily on the possibility of a third world war. More than ever before, these new prophecies are written in a clear and understandable style so that the reader will be able to comprehend their meaning and draw their own conclusions. Here are just a few excerpts from The Henoeh Prophecies:

- “After the turn of the millennium, the papacy will exist only a short period. Pope John Paul II is the third-from-last in this position. After him, only one additional pontificate will follow. Then a Pontifex Maximus follows who will be known as Petrus Romanus. Under his religious rule, the end of the Catholic Church will come and a total collapse becoming inevitable.”
- “If the Third World War will actually happen as calculations and observations appear to indicate to be probable now and also during the approaching few decades, then as now, the civilian population will above all have to bear the brunt of the enormous suffering in tremendous numbers in this entire catastrophe, and last but not least, due to the fault of the irresponsible scientists who by cloning will create human machines for military purposes, devoid of conscience and feelings as well as create immensely deadly and all-annihilating computer-like weapons. At the same time the danger could become reality that the human combat machines, the military clones will gain their independence and under their own management will bring death, devastation, destruction and annihilation to the human beings of earth and to the planet.”
- “Yet the misery on earth will continue, as two terrible civil wars will break out in America, whereby one will follow the other. Afterwards, the United States of America will break apart and deadly hostility will prevail among her, which then leads to the division into five different territories and it cannot be prevented that sectarian fanatics will play a dictatorial role.”
